Library hires new Dublin Branch manager

COLUMBUS—Columbus Metropolitan Library (CML) has hired Joe Yersavich as manager of its Dublin Branch. He begins his new role within the organization today, March 12.

Yersavich has served in many roles at CML since he joined the organization in 1990. For the past seven years, he has served as manager of the New Albany Branch. Prior to that, he served as manager of the Hilltop Branch.

“Joe arrives in Dublin at a critical time,” said CML Chief Customer Experience Officer Alison Circle. “He’s a proven community leader with a long track record who will help welcome our Dublin customers to their new branch when it opens next year.”

The Dublin Branch is currently operating out of a temporary location at 6765 Dublin Center Dr., while the new branch at 75 N. High St. is being built.

The previous manager of the Dublin Branch, Candy Princehorn, has requested a new role within the organization, and will serve as a librarian at CML’s South High Branch.

NOTE: Electronic file of Joe Yersavich’s headshot is available upon request.

Columbus Metropolitan Library has served the people of Franklin County, Ohio since 1873. With its Main Library and 22 branches, CML is well known for signature services and programs like Homework Help Centers, Reading Buddies, Summer Reading Club and Ready for Kindergarten. The library’s Strategic Plan supports the vision of “a thriving community where wisdom prevails,” which positions CML to respond to areas of urgent need: kids unprepared for kindergarten, third grade reading proficiency, high school graduation, college and career readiness and employment resources.

CML was named a 2011 National Medal Winner by the Institute for Museum and Library Services for work in community service, the highest honor for libraries and museums. CML was also named 2010 Library of the Year by Library Journal.
