Tim Frommeyer appointed to Columbus Metropolitan Library Board of Trustees

COLUMBUS—The judges of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas have appointed Tim Frommeyer, senior vice president and chief financial officer for Nationwide Financial, to the Columbus Metropolitan Library (CML) Board of Trustees. He will serve out the remainder of Steve Rasmussen’s second seven-year term – ending in 2019. Rasmussen, CEO of Nationwide, leaves the Board after nine years of service.

Frommeyer joined Nationwide in 1986 after graduating from Xavier University. He is also a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries.

CML’s seven-member Board of Trustees is responsible for guiding major decisions about library strategies and operations. This includes everything from capital projects to the customer code of conduct.

Frommeyer’s term runs through Dec. 31, 2019.

Columbus Metropolitan Library has served the people of Franklin County, Ohio for 141 years. With its Main Library and 21 branches, CML is well known for signature services and programs like Homework Help Centers, Reading Buddies, Summer Reading Club and the Ready to Read Corps. The library’s Strategic Plan supports the vision of “a thriving community where wisdom prevails,” which positions CML to respond to areas of urgent need: kids unprepared for kindergarten, third grade reading proficiency, high school graduation, college readiness and employment resources.

CML was named a 2011 National Medal Winner by the Institute for Museum and Library Services for work in community service, the highest honor for libraries and museums. In 2013, Columbus Metropolitan Library became the only large public library in the country to be rated a 5-Star Library for all six years of Library Journal’s industry standards rating program.
