Library to hold surplus sale

WHO: Columbus Metropolitan Library

WHEN: Friday, Oct. 7 from 9 a.m.-2 p.m.

WHERE: Columbus Metropolitan Library Warehouse
3021 E. Fourth Ave., Suite B

WHAT: Columbus Metropolitan Library surplus sale

Columbus Metropolitan Library (CML) is selling items it no longer has use for during a surplus sale at its warehouse. Tables, chairs, shelves, furniture, IT equipment, carpeting and more will be available for cash-only purchase – with proceeds supporting CML’s general fund.

Columbus Metropolitan Library has served the people of Franklin County, Ohio since 1873. With its Main Library and 22 branches, CML is well known for signature services and programs like Homework Help Centers, Reading Buddies, Summer Reading Club and Ready for Kindergarten. The library’s Strategic Plan supports the vision of “a thriving community where wisdom prevails,” which positions CML to respond to areas of urgent need: kids unprepared for kindergarten, third grade reading proficiency, high school graduation, college readiness and employment resources.

CML was named a 2011 National Medal Winner by the Institute for Museum and Library Services for work in community service, the highest honor for libraries and museums. Columbus Metropolitan Library has been rated a 5-Star Library by Library Journal for seven of the eight years the magazine has published its industry ratings.
