Just for Fun: If you could create your own holiday, what would you celebrate and what would it be called?

I'd celebrate music. Maybe call it Music is Fun day.	Mental health friday
I would celebrate myself. It'd be called Nora day.	Profit Von Capitalism's Birthday- celebrates the redistribution of wealth
Idk a name but it would be about your year	My holiday would be call 'Give and Recieve'. You give a present to someone and they give you a present
If I could create a holiday it would be called useless holiday celebrating all the useless things	it would be a holiday to celebrate mythology, I'd call it "Olympian Days"
I would celebrate the ones in need, and it would be called needy holiday, it would be a holiday where me and my team go out and help the ones in need by doing nice things for examples like giving free cloths, shoes, gift cards, food, etc.	It would be called National Literature Day, and on that day, there would be no school or work, you just got to read or write all day!
I would celebrate taylor swift, it would be called swift day	Profit Von Capitalism's birthday - celebrates the distribution of wealth
Eastcrismis	Binge watch series day.
Anime day its on October 4th	National macaroon day and you would try all types of macaroons
Something that involves me eating pasta all day	Celebrate a stranger day
If I could create a holiday people would celebrate books, and you would be able to meet other people that have read some of your favorite books and talk to them about the books. It would be called something about books.	If I could create my own holiday, it would celebrate people that have passed like Dia de los Muerots but celebrate it for longer because it's a beautiful tradition that means a lot
I would not create my own holiday, but I would get rid of Christmas it is overrated.	Candymas you visit family and eat too much candy
Legos, holiday legos	Like the Renaissance Fair but for Greek Mythology
Books and Reading!	The Good Ol' Off Day
Celebrate me day	CANDY
The international Peace Week. Celebrates world peace by letting nations stop all their conflict and peacefully solve the affairs.	It would be a crush anniversary day for individuals who have crushes, and a year after the day they started liking the person, they can give their crush a present or something for lasting that long.
