

Connect to Tech

During Digital Inclusion Week

Could you use some support with computers, smartphones and technology? We're here to help. Join us for free programs during Digital Inclusion Week Oct. 2-6, plus check our Events page at columbuslibrary.org for more.

Monday, Oct. 2

10-11:30 a.m.

Microsoft Office Essentials Workshop

Barnett Branch | 3434 E. Livingston Ave.

Learn the basics of Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel. Previous computer knowledge is needed.

12:30-2 p.m.

Beginning Computer Skills

Barnett Branch | 3434 E. Livingston Ave.

Whether you're a beginner or already know a bit about computers, you can benefit from this workshop designed to increase your digital skills, taught by Goodwill Columbus.

Tuesday, Oct. 3

10-11:30 a.m.

Beginning Computer Skills

Whitehall Branch | 4445 E. Broad St.

Whether you're a beginner or already know a bit about computers, you can benefit from this workshop designed to increase your digital skills, taught by Goodwill Columbus.

12:30-2 p.m.

Finance Tech: Online Banking, Mobile Apps and Digital Payments

Whitehall Branch | 4445 E. Broad St.

Get help with your finances. This course gives an in-depth understanding of online banking, mobile apps and digital payment methods.

Wednesday, Oct. 4

10-11:30 a.m.

Beginning Computer Skills

Reynoldsburg Branch | 1308 Brice Rd. (temporary location)

Whether you're a beginner or already know a bit about computers, you can benefit from this workshop designed to increase your digital skills, taught by Goodwill Columbus.

Wednesday, Oct. 4

12:30-2 p.m.

Microsoft Office Essentials Workshop

Reynoldsburg Branch | 1308 Brice Rd. (temporary location)

Learn the basics of Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel. Previous computer knowledge is needed.

4:30-5:30 p.m.

Intro to AI Tools

Main Library | 96 S. Grant Ave. (Meeting Room 1A)

Curious about artificial intelligence? George "Ski" Zarebski, co-founder of the Urban Business Development Center, will introduce you to the wonders of AI tools. Supported by the Franklin County Digital Equity Coalition and Smart Columbus.

Wednesday, Oct. 4

5:30-7:30 p.m.

Digital Skills Hub

Hilltop Branch | 511 S. Hague Ave.

Build your skills using technology and earn a free homebook at the completion of this five-course series. Registration is required. Sponsored by the City of Columbus, this a pilot program of the Franklin County Digital Equity Coalition.

Thursday, Oct. 5

10-11:30 a.m.

Finance Tech: Online Banking, Mobile Apps and Digital Payments

Karl Road Branch | 5590 Karl Rd.

Get help with your finances. This course gives an in-depth understanding of online banking, mobile apps and digital payment methods.

12:30-2 p.m.

Beginning Computer Skills

Karl Road Branch | 5590 Karl Rd.

Whether you're a beginner or already know a bit about computers, you can benefit from this workshop designed to increase your digital skills, taught by Goodwill Columbus.

Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) Sign-Up Events

The ACP provides discounts on broadband internet services and a onetime device credit to eligible households. Come learn if you are eligible and find resources to help you get connected!

Monday, Oct. 2

2-3 p.m. | Marion-Franklin Branch | 2740 Lockbourne Rd.

4-4:30 p.m. | Whitehall Branch | 4445 E. Broad St.

Wednesday, Oct. 4

10 a.m.-12 p.m. | Main Library | 96 S. Grant Ave.

11 a.m.-1 p.m. | Franklinton Branch | 1061 W. Town St.

11 a.m.-1 p.m. | Linden Branch | 2223 Cleveland Ave.

Thursday, Oct. 5

10 a.m.-12 p.m. | Driving Park Branch | 1422 E. Livingston Ave.

Learn more at digitalinclusion.org.

Spaces to Connect and Grow

