

Meet the Databases Scavenger Hunt

Visit columbuslibrary.org/resources-by-subject/topics/school-help-tools/ and get to know our online resources perfect for students in grades 6–12 — get help with homework, class projects, research and more!

African-American History Online Go to Topic Center &gt; Harlem Renaissance and find the Harlem Renaissance World Influence map and name the Ohio city listed on the map:	American &amp; English Literature Collection Click Literary Collections and sort by oldest to newest. What is the title of the oldest book in the collection?	AtoZ World Culture Choose a country and find the Food Culture and Recipes tab. Name one dish listed under Recipes.
Biography Reference Bank Search for Wilma Rudolph and list three types of sources that come up.	Citation Help from OSU Libraries Name five of the different citation styles available under Examples.	CultureGrams Click on Provinces Edition &gt; Nunavut. What does Nunavut mean and what language is it derived from?
Explora for Secondary Students Search for hadron collider and choose the Peer Reviewed filter. Name two publications with articles on the collider.	Gale Literature Click on Browse Topics &gt; The Gothic Novel. Name three representative works listed in the overview.	Brainfuse HelpNow Visit SkillSurfer and name three Life Skills you can explore.
Literary Reference Source Click Publication Finder &gt; Browse Subjects &gt; Kitesurfing. Name the publication that focuses on this topic.	Literature Reference Library Search for Albert Camus. What year was The Stranger written?	Mango Languages Look up how to say “Hello! How are you?” in Pashto.

OverDrive/Libby Teens Search Subjects &gt; Study Aids and Workbooks and list two items that are available to check out now.	Points of View Reference Source Choose the Technology and the Internet topic and list one point and counterpoint on AI-Generated Art.	Science Reference Source Search for “mars rover” and list the first result that comes from a peer-reviewed Academic Journal.
Very Short Introductions Look up the French Revolution and find the full-text book. How many chapters are in it?	World Book Advanced Click on Research &amp; Resources &gt; Atlas . Search for Diego Garcia. What is it?	World Book Timelines Go to the Science and technology &gt; Scientists . What scientist has the initials GWC?

